

WO2 Uniform Package

Welcome

This uniform package is designed to allow for the proper identification of items to be placed on a member's uniform as well as the appropriate placement of each item.

Each item placed on the uniform is given a specific number in the diagram to allow for easy determination of its correct placement.

This document is divided into six different sections:

- Section Identifiers
 - o Items that specifically identify the section that the member belongs to (LTC, YTC, JTC or SC)
- Company Identifier
 - o Items that specifically identify that member's company
- Items for multiple sections
 - o Items that can be found on uniforms for multiple sections
- Section Specific
 - o Items that are found only on the uniform of a specific section
- WO2 Specific
 - o Items that are found only on the uniform of a WO2
- Special Items
 - o Items that have been issued for a limited time use

The numbers used in the document correspond to the item number in the diagram found on the first page.

SC Section Identifiers

Each section has a unique colour associated with it. For the SC Section that colour is green and can be found in the shoulder epaulette badges as well as the tie.

1. SC Section Epaulette Badge

2. Green Tie

Company Identifier

3. Company Flashes

Each company within the Brigade has a unique number associated with it. The Company Flashes have the name of the company along with the company's number.

Items for multiple Sections

4. St. John's Freedom of the City

The Freedom of the City is the highest award conferred by the City of St. John's and was awarded to the C.L.B. on May 28, 2000.

5. Medals

Brigade medals are worn by all ranks on the right side above the pocket flap. They are worn starting from the right shoulder inwards in the following order:

- Gallant Conduct Medal
- Medal of Merit
- Fortitude Medal
- Brigade Cross
- Exemplary Service Medal
- Long Service Medal
- Anniversary or Review Medals in order of issue
- Attendance Medal (not worn by Officers)
- JTC Medal

6. Lanyard

A lanyard awarded to a company will be one of four different colours associated with a specific grade. These grades are determined via points that a company earns under the Colonel V. L. Ash Awards Program. The lanyard grades are as follows: Grade 1 - Red , Grade 2 - Green, Grade 3 - Royal Blue, Grade 4 - Navy Blue

In addition to the standard lanyards, there are two additional ones awarded to represent the Top Company and Most Improved Company. The Top Company lanyard is awarded to the company with the highest number of points under the Colonel V. L. Ash Awards Program. This lanyard uses the grade colour given to that company interwoven with gold. The Most Improved Company lanyard is awarded to the company with the biggest improvement year over year under the Colonel V. L. Ash Awards Program. This lanyard uses the grade colour given to that company interwoven with silver.

7. Colonel's Award

The Colonel's Award is awarded to a member who shows excellent participation and conduct during sporting events. This award can be worn on a member's uniform throughout their lifetime in the brigade.

SC Specific

8. Bishops Badge

This is the most prestigious badge that a member can earn. It is awarded to a senior corps member based upon his/her superior performance in completing the Senior Corps badge program and participating in a substantial amount of CLB activities.
