7. CLB Website

Brigade Council is very pleased to report our newly redesigned CLB website - theclb.ca - was given a soft launch this past Spring. It is now ready to be used by our CLB companies. Instead of individual passwords as previously used, the new members' area will be accessible by a single password on a per CLB company basis. The individual company ID's and passwords will be distributed to all company commanders by Armoury staff. They in turn can disperse this info to their company members as need be. Companies will be given an opportunity to showcase activities and badgework offered at their Company, and have a table to display all the great work they are doing. Word of mouth is the best advertising, so why not bring along a few members in uniform to tell potential new members about the fun they are having each week.
