Memo To: All Company Commanders, Officers & Members of the C.L.B. current & past

From: Lt. Col. Gail Dick, Regimental Commander Eastern Diocese Regiment

Subject: Old Comrades Lodge # 1

Background:

At the Annual meeting of the Eastern Diocesan Regiment held on November 19th, 2017 at St. Paul's Parish Hall in Harbour Grace, the Old Comrades Lodge # 1 reported to the meeting that memberships in the lodge is for all current and past members of the C.L.B. over the age of 19. It was felt at the meeting that officers and members were not aware that they are entitled to a membership

Lodge Commitment:

It should be noted that the Lodge plays a major role in the C.L.B. through its Scholarship Program and support of Summer Camp and its overall support for the development of the C.L.B.

Recommendations from the Meeting:

It was felt quite strongly at the meeting that all members should be joining the lodge and giving our support for the continued growth of our C.L.B. The meeting agreed that a letter should be forwarded to all members over the age of 19 accompanied with an application form

Action Required:

Here is what we would like you to do;

- 1.) Please complete the application form.
- 2.) Please disregard the sponsor portion of the application, as regular members do not require a sponsor.
- 3.) Please forward your application form, together with your $15.00 annual membership fee, to the following address: Please note the deadline for applications is December 12, 2017
